

Marlow NH Historical Society
Annual Report Sept 2007-August 2008

Annual Activities:

2007 Annual Meeting- Pot Luck with speaker: Michelle Stahl, Executive Director of the Peterborough Historical Society
Harvest Fest booth and Christmas on the Pond booth
MHS Art Show and Reception
Christmas "Radio Show" with original Marlow skit
Meet the Candidates Program
Information Table at the Town Meeting
Plantings: Murray Hall flower boxes and "The Quiet Place", Tulips-daffodils around Elms
NHHC Program: Glenn Knoblock- Cemeteries
Elm Tree Maintenance
MHS Forum, Our Presence on the Web
Newsletter: The feature was the James Burnap House
General Meeting with a talk on the MHS Forum

Special Projects:

Support for Warrant Article for painting Jones Hall (passed)
Petitioned Warrant Article for Jones Hall fire alarm system (passed)
Audrey Benson Scrapbook copies at Library and MHS Museum
Conservation of 1876 Marlow Bride's Album Quilt
Shoring up and painting the Hearse House and attaching a new sign

Oral History:

Ulric Lindholm on Marlow summer life in the 20th century
Donald Dunlap on Dunlap furniture
Charles Strickland on World War II experience

Research:

Marlow genealogy, including the Original Proprietors
Proper paint and restoration work for Jones Hall

New Ventures:

Reception for new members
New web page on the relationship between Marlow and Lyme, CT

We perform many other services: respond to genealogical inquiries, collect the data, and meet with those who are searching for their ancestors; photograph gravestones for people who cannot come here; write letters of support such as for Adam Plumb's Eagle Scout Project and the Conservation Commission's Grassy Brook Watershed Grant, and provide copies of photographs for authors.